We are fortunate to have a lot of musical talent within our congregation but is some of it being hidden? Do you have talent that you would like to share-instrumental or vocal? Or would you at least like to explore the possibility? You don't need to be a professional. You just need a heart for sharing. There are opportunities-choir, solo, duet, group worship. If you have any sort of interest, please contact Diana and let her know what you have in mind. She can coordinate with the music calendar and get you scheduled. Think about it.
